Five hundred Chinese Communist naval personnel are scheduled to leave Yingk'ou (122-13, 40-40) for assignments in East and South China about the middle of September. They were trained by Soviet naval personnel at Najin (130-15, 42-10), North Korea. When training was completed in July, they returned to China via Dairen, arriving in mid-August. They received a short course of indoctrination by the Chinese Communist Navy Command before receiving assignment.
